N/A, Pinole, CA

Introducing a remarkable commercial office property with a rich history in the desirable Old Town Pinole. Built in the late 1800s as one of the area's first churches, this unique space blends timeless elegance with modern functionality, offering an exceptional investment opportunity. The light-filled interior features high ceilings, large stained glass windows, a grand spiral staircase, and classical fixtures that create an inviting and sophisticated ambiance. The vintage-inspired kitchen, complete with a charming stove, balances nostalgia with practicality. The thoughtfully designed layout includes office and conference rooms, a reception area, and two bathrooms, providing flexibility for various business needs. With its attractive curb appeal and proximity to popular cafes, shopping, and the scenic coastline, this serene commercial space is perfect for work and leaves a lasting impression. Don't miss the chance to own a piece of history in this prime location. Back on Market No Fault of Property!
