In 1967 three savvy Italian gentlemen furnished the city of San Mateo with The 'Bayside' hardware store. Amongst family members the saying 'Thank God for Bayside' has been commonly spoken. Through risk taking and extensive effort for these three families the American Dream was realized and truly is a reality. This rare undeveloped gem in San Mateo County has not been offered to the public for over 57 years. Short term income may reside with current like kind operations and/or paving the 54,256 sqft lot and offering leasing terms. Long term income may be derived through future development.
