1818 California is in selection process for the upcoming San Francisco Decorator Showcase a renowned design event that would bring extensive, high-end remodeling and curated interiors by leading Bay Area designers, enhancing both aesthetics and long-term value. Tucked among the storied streets of Pac-Heights, behind a dignified facade of bracketed eaves and bay windows, the Sloss-Lilienthal House offers an extraordinary encounter with SF's Gilded Age. Spanning over 8,200 square feet across four gracefully scaled levels, the home retains its original artistry while integrating refined upgrades that bring ease and comfort to everyday living. Grandly proportioned interiors reveal ceiling heights of 13 feet on the main floor and 12 feet above a soaring sense of space that amplifies natural light and ornamental detailing throughout. From richly adorned millwork and plaster medallions to alabaster chandeliers and floor-to-ceiling bay windows, each room tells a story of artistry, elegance, and endurance. Rare 8,250 square foot double lot with a 4-car garage, this residence enjoys Mills Act tax benefits for significant yearly property tax reductions and landmark status.
