6 Bedroom, 8.00 Bathroom, 7,440 sqft
Residential on 0.12 Acres

Clarendon Heights, San Francisco, CA

150 Glenbrook Avenue is an architectural masterpiece located on the peak of the Clarendon Heights neighborhood that showcases an exclusive collection of homes at the highest point above sea level in San Francisco. The home was designed by the famed John Maniscalco Architecture firm in 2018 and built by Cook Construction with gardens by Terra Ferma Landscapes Design. This six bedroom, six full and two half bath, four level residence set on a 5,721 square foot lot captures the most powerful and commanding views of the entire city from bridge to bridge and everything in between. The homes open floor plan with floor to ceiling windows on all levels allows the full grandeur of its setting to be realized through the world class vistas it looks upon. The residence is complete with four en-suite bedrooms on the upper level, multiple panoramic view terraces, a guest suite with private entrance, steam room, cedar sauna, two additional large entertaining rooms with immediate access to the mature garden with firepit and an outdoor spa.

Built in 2018
